Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

"John Perpetua Hombrebueno is an outstanding student who demonstrates exeptional leadership skills—he is responsible, proactive, and consistently guides and inspires those around him with integrity and dedication. Throughout his time in school, he has taken meaningful initiative in various activities and projects, contributing positively to our learning environment and encouraging active participation among his peers. His commitment extends beyond the classroom; he shows genuine care and service to the community, making a tangible and meaningful impact through his involvement and willingness to help others. Dependable, honest, and eager to learn, he approaches every tasks with enthusiasm, works well with people from all backgrounds, and maintains a positive, resilient attitude even when facing challenges. He is truly a deserving candidate with a character, ability, and drive to succeed and make a difference."
