Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I have known Jonahfe Pobe as her School Journalism Coach and have witnessed her growth as a responsible, hardworking, and talented student. She demonstrates strong leadership skills, dedication, and a willingness to contribute her abilities not only to our school but also to the people around her.

As a student involved in journalism and school activities, Jonahfe consistently shows commitment, creativity, and perseverance. She works well with others, takes responsibility for her tasks, and remains determined even when faced with challenges. Her positive attitude and willingness to learn make her a dependable member of any team. Through her participation in various activities, she has demonstrated the ability to communicate effectively, collaborate with others, and inspire her fellow students.

Despite the challenges she faces, particularly financial difficulties, Jonahfe remains focused on her education and continues striving toward her goals. Her determination, resilience, and passion for making a difference reflect her strong character and potential to become a future leader who can contribute meaningfully to her community and country.

I strongly believe that Jonahfe Pobe is a deserving candidate for the PCAFPD Undergraduate Scholarship. Given the opportunity, I am confident that she will continue to excel academically,
