Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am pleased to recommend the applicant for the PCAFPD Scholarship. The applicant is a dedicated student leader who has consistently shown responsibility, initiative, and a willingness to serve others. Through active participation in school organizations and community activities, the applicant has demonstrated qualities that reflect a strong sense of commitment and leadership.

One of the applicant's notable strengths is their genuine concern for the environment. As a member of the Youth for Environment in Schools Organization (YES-O), the applicant takes part in activities that promote cleanliness and environmental awareness. Their involvement in clean-up drives within the school and outside the school shows that they value service and are willing to contribute their time and effort to maintaining a clean and healthy environment. Their participation in these activities reflects an understanding that leadership is not only about holding a position but also about taking action and helping others.

The applicant has also been involved in other school organizations, including SDRRM and BKD during Grade 11. Through these experiences, the applicant has learned to work with different people, fulfill assigned responsibilities, and contribute to the success of various activities. Their willingness to participate and cooperate with others demonstrates their ability to become a dependable member of any organization.

In academics, the applicant has consistently performed well and has received honors and high honors. Despite having different responsibilities in school, the applicant remains hardworking, determined, and committed to their studies. They also serve as a positive example to fellow students through their discipline, respectful attitude, and willingness to help whenever needed.

Overall, the applicant is a responsible, hardworking, and service-oriented student who continues to develop their leadership skills through meaningful experiences. I believe that the applicant deserves consideration for the PCAFPD Scholarship and that this opportunity would help support their educational goals and encourage them to continue serving their school and community.
