Recommendation

PCAFDP scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am pleased to recommend Sarah Jean E. Senoro for the PCAFDP Scholarship. Sarah is one of our pioneer Farm School learners whom I had the privilege of teaching and guiding. As one of our pioneering learners, she showed strong determination, discipline, respect, and a sincere willingness to learn. Throughout her Farm School journey, she consistently demonstrated hard work, responsibility, and commitment to achieving her goals.

Sarah's academic performance is one of her greatest strengths. She completed her Farm School program as the class valedictorian, an outstanding achievement that reflects her hard work, focus, and commitment to her studies. Despite the financial difficulties she has experienced, she never allowed these challenges to stop her from doing her best. Instead, she remained focused on her education and continued to work toward her goals.

As a Farm School learner, Sarah also developed practical skills in agriculture. She was responsible, hardworking, and willing to take part in different farm activities. She learned the importance of proper farm practices, safety, cleanliness, teamwork, and caring for crops. She understood that farming requires patience, effort, and responsibility. These qualities are also reflected in the way she approaches her studies and responsibilities.

Sarah is also a responsible and trustworthy young person. She knows the value of hard work and understands that opportunities should be used wisely. She respects her teachers, classmates, community members, and the people who support her education. She works well with others and shows a positive attitude even when faced with difficulties.

What makes Sarah especially deserve this scholarship is her determination to continue her education despite financial need. She has already shown that when given an opportunity, she will work hard and make the most of it. Her achievements in Farm School prove that she has the ability, discipline, and commitment to succeed.

I strongly recommend Sarah Jean E. Senoro for the PCAFDP Scholarship. I believe that this scholarship will give her an important opportunity to continue her education and reach her goals. Sarah has academic ability, good character, work ethic, and determination needed to make good use of this support.

Sarah is not only a deserving student but also a promising young person who has the potential to become a responsible, productive, and helpful member of her community. I am confident that supporting her education will have a meaningful impact on her future. I highly recommend her for this scholarship and sincerely hope that she will be given this opportunity to continue learning, growing, and achieving her dreams.
