To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend Trinnah Jane Antarao Salang-ey for consideration for the PCAFPD scholarship program. I have known her personally since birth and I can attest to her good character, determination and sincere desire to pursue her education.

Trinnah Jane comes from a financially disadvantaged family. Despite the difficulties they are experiencing, she remains committed to her studies and continues to work hard toward achieving her educational goals. Her family has limited financial resources making it difficult for them to meet the expenses associated with her education.

I believe that this scholarship would be a great help to her with the opportunity to continue her studies without placing an additional financial burden to her family. More importantly, it would give her the chance to develop her abilities and prepare herself for a better and more productive future.

Based on my personal knowledge of her character and circumstances, I strongly recommend Trinnah Jane A. Salang-ey for this scholarship. I am confident that she will value this opportunity and do her best to fulfill her responsibilities as a student.

I sincerely hope that her application will be given favorable consideration. Your assistance could make a meaningful difference for her family, her education and future.

Thank you very much for your kind consideration.

Respectfully yours,

Philippines

Dear Members of the PCAFPD Scholarship Selection Committee:

I am pleased to recommend Trinnah Jane A. Salang-ey, a GAS 12 student, for consideration for the PCAFPD Scholarship Program. As the School Head of Natonin Stand Alone Senior High School, I have had the opportunity to observe and appreciate her character, dedication, potential, and commitment to her education and to the welfare of others.

Salang-ey is a promising young Filipino who demonstrates a strong desire to pursue higher education and develop her knowledge and skills. She has shown qualities that are important in a future community leader—responsibility, perseverance, respect for others, willingness to learn, and a sincere concern for the people around her. I believe that she has the potential not only to succeed academically but also to use her education in meaningful ways that can contribute to the development of her community and the Philippines.

The opportunity provided by the PCAFPD Scholarship Program would be of great value to Salang-ey as she pursues her educational goals. More importantly, I believe that she will make good use of this opportunity by continuing to develop herself and, in the future, sharing her knowledge, skills, and experiences with others. Her aspirations are consistent with the spirit of the program—to provide Filipinos with opportunities for education while encouraging them to become productive and responsible contributors to Philippine development.

I also appreciate the commitment of the former Peace Corps Volunteers who serve as the primary funders of this scholarship program. Their continued support provides deserving Filipino students with opportunities that can have a lasting impact not only on the scholars themselves but also on their families, communities, and the country.

In view of the foregoing, I strongly recommend Trinnah Jane A. Salang-ey for the PCAFPD Scholarship Program. I am confident that she will value this opportunity, strive to fulfill her educational aspirations, and eventually contribute positively to her community and to the development of the Philippines.

Thank you for considering her application. I sincerely hope that she will be given the opportunity to become one of the beneficiaries of this meaningful scholarship program.

Respectfully yours,
