To whom it may concern,

It is with great pleasure that I, Rev. Fr. Mamerto A. Dolera Jr.,VF, humbly recommend Chelzen V. Pocong for the esteemed school scholarship. This exceptional individual has consistently demonstrated a profound dedication to their academic pursuits and a fervent commitment to serving others.

In the realm of academia, Chelzen shines as a beacon of excellence, earning a with honors in all their studies and displaying a keen thirst for knowledge. Their intellectual curiosity and eagerness to learn are truly commendable, and their leadership qualities have been evident in their academic endeavors.

Beyond the confines of the Classroom, Chelzen has been an integral part of our church community, selflessly devoting their time and talents to various outreach programs and charitable initiatives. Their compassion, empathy and kindness towards those in need are a testament to their noble character.

As a devoted member of our parish, Chelzen has exemplified a deep appreciation for the value of education and a strong commitment to personal growth. I have every confidence that they will utilize this scholarship as a means to further their academic and spiritual development.

Without hesitation, I wholeheartedly endorse Chelzen Pocong for this prestigious scholarship. His exceptional academic record, combined with their outstanding character and dedication to serving others, makes him an exemplary candidate. I am convinced that he will make the most of this opportunity and emerge as a leader in their chosen field.

Sincerely,

Rev. Fr. Mamerto A. Dolera Jr., VF
