

Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development (PCAFPD)

ABOUT US

Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development (PCAFPD) is the official Returned Peace Corps Volunteer (RPCV) group for the Philippines and is an affiliate of the National Peace Corps Association (NPCA). In 1983, Returned Peace Corps Volunteers and staff created the Foundation as a way for former volunteers and staff to stay connected to the Philippines and to each other in a worthy cause.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The PCAFPD scholarship program is designed to provide opportunities for Filipinos to further their education and contribute to the development of the Philippines. The program is funded primarily by former Peace Corps Volunteers and Filipino-Americans who support the program as a way to further Philippine development.

The Foundation is looking for applicants who have the potential to be leaders in their communities and demonstrate a strong commitment to improving the quality of life for all Filipinos. Your application should demonstrate this capacity and commitment.

ELIGIBILITY

Who can apply for this scholarship?

- Be a citizen of the Republic of the Philippines.
- Currently studying in Grade 12, college, or at least have graduated from Senior High School in the Philippines. We do not support study abroad.
- Have a record of strong academic performance and performed volunteer community service work.
- Demonstrate financial need. Priority is given to applicants from low-income households, generally those below the poverty line for a family of four.
- Be committed to serving your community and country, following your graduation from college. This scholarship is not intended for people planning to work overseas.
- Applicants proposing fields of study with high potential to contribute to Philippine development will be given priority in the selection process.
- Generally, you may not accept any other scholarships in conjunction with a PCAFPD scholarship without prior approval of the PCAFPD Board of Directors. If you have a current college scholarship, you need to state it in your application. Failure to inform PCAFPD of a concurrent scholarship award will result in immediate termination of the PCAFPD scholarship.

SCHOLARSHIP BENEFITS

Successful applicants would receive the following benefits:

- Full Tuition & Other School Fees
- Allowance for Books & Educational Supplies
