Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Dear Madam/Sir,

I am honored to recommend Alexis Catherine F. Dorio for the Peace Corps Scholars and Alumni Association. As her teacher and mentor for nearly two years at Ramon Torres Dulao National High School, I have witnessed firsthand her unwavering commitment to academic excellence and her outstanding leadership abilities.

Alexis is not only a top academic performer, consistently ranking first in her class with high honors, but she also exemplifies what it means to be a dedicated and effective leader. She has adeptly managed her academic responsibilities alongside her leadership roles, demonstrating a rare combination of intellect, dedication, and passion.

Throughout her time at our school, Alexis has held numerous positions of responsibility, including:

- Grade 7 MAPEH Club Representative (S.Y. 2019-2020)
- President of the Youth for Environment in Schools Organization (YES-O) (S.Y. 2022-2023)
- Vice President of the English Club (S.Y. 2022-2023)

- Active Member of the Filipino Club (S.Y. 2022-2023)
- Grade 12 Representative for the Supreme Secondary Leader Government (SSLG) (S.Y. 2024-2025)

Her role as the YES-O President is particularly noteworthy, as she spearheaded several environmental initiatives that had a lasting positive impact on our school and the local community. Alexis's ability to inspire and lead her peers is exceptional, and she approaches every challenge with a positive attitude and a strong sense of responsibility.

Alexis Catherine F. Dorio's combination of academic prowess, leadership skills, and commitment to service make her an outstanding candidate for your scholarship program. She is a young woman of remarkable character and potential, poised to make significant contributions to any community she serves.

I have no doubt that Alexis will continue to excel and make a meaningful difference wherever she goes. I wholeheartedly endorse her application and am confident that she will be an invaluable addition to your program.
