Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am Wilfred C. De Leon, recommending Juliana P. Campo for the PCAFPD scholarship. As her Christian Formation Teacher at San Ildefonso College, Ma. Juliana P. Campo has consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership skills and a commitment to making a positive impact on our community through a variety of extracurricular and volunteer activities.

Leadership Skills: As the Student Council – Peace Officer AY. 2023-2024, PRO (at present) showcased remarkable leadership by managing a diverse team, coordinating deadlines, and ensuring the production of high-quality publications. Their ability to motivate team members, provide constructive feedback, and handle multiple tasks efficiently is a testament to their strong leadership and organizational skills.

In her role as Earth Saver Club (Business Manager) Member of the Environmental Awareness Club, Ma. Juliana P. Campo led numerous sustainability initiatives, including recycling drives, clean-up events, and educational campaigns. Their leadership in these projects not only fostered a culture of environmental responsibility within the school but also extended to the broader community, demonstrating their ability to drive collective action toward meaningful goals.

Overall, Ma. Juliana P. Campo exhibits a blend of leadership, dedication, and compassion that sets them apart. Their accomplishments reflect a deep commitment to making a positive difference, and their ability to inspire and lead others is evident in the tangible results of their efforts. [Applicant's Name] is a highly motivated individual whose skills and achievements will undoubtedly contribute to their continued success and impact in the future.
