Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To the esteemed scholarship committee,

I am writing to wholeheartedly recommend Darlene Joy P. Caporal for your scholarship program. As her former high school teacher, I've had the pleasure of seeing her dedication to learning and her genuine desire to make a difference in our community.

She is a bright and engaged student who consistently earns top marks. She's always eager to learn and participate in class discussions, and her passion for knowledge is truly inspiring.

Outside of the classroom, her leadership skills are evident in her active participation in the KPSEP Club. She's dedicated to community service, volunteering her time to help others. Her commitment to making a positive impact on our community is truly commendable.

Her dedication to both academics and service makes her an exceptional candidate for your scholarship. She's a deserving student with a bright future ahead of her, and I'm confident she will continue to excel in all her endeavors.

I highly recommend Darlene Joy P. Caporal for your scholarship program. She's a remarkable young woman with the potential to achieve great things.

Sincerely,

EMELYN A. JAMELA
