Recommendation:

I am honored to recommend Mary Grace P. Candor for the PCAFPD scholarship program, as she exemplify the qualities of a dedicated and impactful leader. Over the past year 2022 to present, Mary Grace P. Candor has demonstrated remarkable leadership and commitment through her active involvement in the journalism club. Her role in the club not only showcases her ability to lead and organize but also highlights her genuine dedication to addressing organization needs. For instance, Mary Mary Grace P. Candor spearheaded screening processes and crafting the school paper publications yearly, which help us won different competitions in schools press conferences, significantly benefiting the journalism club. Her leadership and devotion have inspired peers and elevated the effectiveness of our organization programs.

Academically, Mary Grace P. Candor maintains an exemplary record, consistently achieving high grades while balancing a demanding schedule of community service and extracurricular activities. Their academic prowess is matched by their ability to apply learned skills in real-world contexts, further demonstrating their readiness for future challenges. Mary Grace P. Candor's financial need is evident, but her drive and determination to make a difference are even more so. I am confident that Mary Grace P. Candor will leverage the PCAFPD scholarship to continue her remarkable contributions, embodying the values of service, leadership, and excellence that the program celebrates.

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.
