Dear PCAFPD Scholarship,

I am writing to highly recommend Beverly C. Omo for the PCAFPD scholarship. As her counselor at Colegio De Kidapawan, I have had the pleasure of working closely with Beverly C. Omo for the past 2 years and have been consistently impressed by her dedication, leadership, and commitment to community service.

Beverly C. Omo has demonstrated exceptional academic performance, consistently achieving top grades in her coursework. She have a strong passion for nursing which is evident in her active participation in related projects and research. Beverly C. Omo has also been a valuable member of our Health Outreach Program, where she have taken on leadership roles and organized various initiatives to benefit the community.

In addition to her academic and extracurricular achievements, Beverly C. Omo possesses qualities that make her an outstanding candidate for the PCAFPD scholarship. She are empathetic, resilient, dedicated, and her commitment to making a positive impact on the community is truly commendable.

I am confident that Beverly C. Omo will continue to excel and make significant contributions to her field of study and the broader community. The PCAFPD scholarship will provide her with the necessary support to further her education and achieve her goals.

Thank you for considering Beverly C. Omo for this prestigious scholarship. Please feel free to contact me if you require any additional information.

Sincerely,
Sushmita Jane R. Otong-Toledo
