As a community teacher and staff member in Barangay 141, I see Mr. Kyle James Andales every day and know him as a very responsible eldest son to his family. When his parents go to work, he takes care of his younger siblings, making sure they are safe and looked after. He is not only helpful and hardworking at home but also in our community. Whenever someone asks for his help, he is always dependable and ready to solve any problem, no matter how simple or difficult. His strong sense of responsibility and kindness toward his family and community show his good character. I am confident that his hard work and caring nature will be valuable in anything he chooses to do.
