Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am pleased to recommend Jahna Collantes for the PCAFPD scholarship. As her teacher at Bicol University, I have had the privilege of witnessing Ms. Collantes' exceptional academic and leadership abilities firsthand. She is a consistent honor student and has received numerous scholastic citations.

I can likewise vouch for her exceptional leadership skills, being a student leader in many organizations. As adviser of the Pre-Medical Society of Bicol University where she is an active officer, I have witnessed her initiatives and perseverance to contribute in attaining the objectives of the organization and to contribute to the welfare of the general community. In fact, she embarked on several community drives, the latest of which is to raise funds to provide immediate relief to some communities devastated by Tropical Cyclone Trami/Kristine this October 2024. Hence, it is evident that she has the ability to mobilize people around a common goal.

I have no doubt that Ms. Collantes will continue to excel in her future endeavors and make a positive impact in any community she chooses to be a part of. Her leadership qualities, combined with a strong commitment to service and academic excellence, make her an ideal candidate for the PCAFPD scholarship.

Thank you for considering Ms. Collantes for this opportunity. Please feel free to contact me at my email address if you need any further information.
