Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am honored to recommend Erica May Fernandez for the PCADFPD Scholarship. Erica May is a dedicated student, consistently performing with honors, and exhibits strong leadership skills in both her academics and community activities. Despite the loss of her mother eight years ago, she supports her construction worker father by managing household responsibilities with maturity and resilience.

Erica May is also active as a catechist and a volunteer for the Clean-and-Green Program in her barangay, promoting values and environmental stewardship within her community. Her dedication, leadership, and perseverance make her an ideal candidate for this scholarship.
