Recommendation

It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend Jelly G. Fajardo for the PCAFPD scholarship. I have known Jelly throughout her time in the Bachelor of Secondary Education program, and she has consistently demonstrated her potential as a leader and her unwavering commitment to improving the quality of life for her community.

Jelly's accomplishments speak volumes about her dedication. As a Junior and Senior Writer, and now Feature Editor for The DWCC Gazette (School's Official Publication), she has shown remarkable writing talent and leadership in journalism. Her recent achievement as the 8th placer in News Story Writing during the 15th National Campus Media Conference highlights her skills and passion for informing and engaging the community. Moreover, Jelly has earned a place on the Dean's List for her outstanding academic performance, underscoring her dedication to excellence in her studies. As the Business Manager for the Childhood Education and Language Teaching Students (CELTS) Organization, she has effectively managed resources and collaborated with peers to enhance educational initiatives.

Beyond her academic and extracurricular achievements, Jelly is actively involved in community service, participating in programs such as the Feeding Program in partnership with NSTP and participating to labor education seminar and other activities. Her ability to mobilize peers for meaningful causes exemplifies her commitment to community welfare.

Jelly deserves this scholarship despite her financial constraints, as it would provide her with the support, she needs to continue her education and make a meaningful impact in her community. I am confident that she will use this opportunity not only to advance her own education but also to uplift those around her.

Thank you for considering her application.
