Recommendation

I am pleased to recommend Mujadillah Sani for the PCAFPD Scholars program. As a dedicated level 2 student nurse at Mindanao State University — College of Health Sciences, Ms. Sani exemplifies the qualities and values that this scholarship seeks to reward.

Mujadillah's financial situation is a significant factor in her application. With her father currently unemployed and her mother earning a minimum wage, the family's financial struggles are compounded by existing loans. This context underscores Mujadillah's urgent need for financial support to continue her education and pursue her dream of becoming a nurse.

In the terms of academics, Mujadillah is excelling, consistently maintaining good grades and demonstrating a strong commitment to her studies. Her dedication to learning and her ability to balance her academic responsibilities with her personal challenges speak volumes about her character and work ethic.

Mujadillah is deeply committed to serving her community. She finds genuine joy in helping others, particularly during Ramadan, when she actively volunteers her time and effort. Her selfless contributions during this holy month reflect her compassionate nature and her desire to make a positive impact in the lives of those around her.

As the eldest child in her family, she naturally assumes a leadership role. This experience has instilled in her a sense of responsibility and the ability to guide and support others. Her leadership is characterized by empathy and understanding, making her an effective and approachable figure in both her family and community.

Mujadillah's optimistic and cheerful demeanor significantly enhances her interactions during community service initiatives, such as medical missions and seminars. Her polite and respectful attitude resonates well with the elders and participants, fostering a warm and inviting atmosphere. Her empathy allows her to connect with others on a personal level, making her contributions even more impactful.

Mujadillah Sani is an outstanding candidate for the PCAFPD Scholars program. Her financial need, academic excellence, commitment to community service, leadership abilities, and positive impact on her community make her a deserving recipient of this scholarship. I wholeheartedly support her application and believe she will continue to make significant contributions to her community and the nursing profession.

Sincerely,
Professor Norhanie A. Lininding
Level 2 Adviser
