Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to wholeheartedly recommend Allesandra Marie B. Noceja for the scholarship opportunity she is applying for. As her previous subject teacher and adviser in Senior High School, I have had the privilege of observing Allesandra's remarkable leadership skills, academic accomplishments, and her profound impact on our community.

Allesandra has served as the President of the Solvers Club, where she has consistently exhibited exceptional leadership qualities. Under her guidance, the club has not only increased its membership but also expanded its outreach initiatives. In addition to her leadership role, Allesandra is a consistent honor student who excels academically across all subjects. Her dedication to her studies is reflected in her impressive GPA and numerous academic awards. She balances her rigorous coursework with extracurricular activities seamlessly, showcasing her time management skills and work ethic. Allesandra's contributions extend beyond the classroom and club activities. Her passion for service not only benefits those around her but also inspires fellow students to take an active role in their communities.

With this, I strongly endorse Allesandra Marie B. Noceja for this scholarship opportunity. Her demonstrated leadership skills, academic excellence, and unwavering commitment to community service make her an outstanding candidate who will undoubtedly continue to excel and contribute positively wherever she goes.
