Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Dear Members of the PCAFPD Scholarship Committee,

I am pleased to recommend Nico James Bilan for the PCAFPD scholarship. As his Creative Writing teacher at Commissioner Luis R. Asis National High School, I have witnessed his exceptional participation, leadership, and commitment to community service.

Nico is an enthusiastic and creative student who actively engages in class. He also serves as a Catechist, demonstrating his dedication to his faith and community. His involvement in the clean and green programs, barangay assemblies, and environmental initiatives like clean-up drives and mangrove planting showcases his commitment to sustainability and community improvement.

Nico's academic excellence, leadership skills, and dedication to service make him an ideal candidate for this scholarship. I am confident he will excel as a PCAFPD scholar.

Thank you for your time and consideration.
