Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I would like to recommend the applicant from your scholarship. I have known Jerri for two (2) academic years as her Grade 11 class adviser and subject teacher in General Biology 1, which is one of their major subjects in STEM, during which I have witnessed her impressive academic abilities and strong leadership qualities.

The applicant consistently excelled academically demonstrating deep commitment to her studies, maintaining high standard of excellence across all subjects. She always participates in and engages in all lessons and activities. She demonstrates strong commitment to learning, consistently striving to grasp new concepts and expand her understanding. The student does more than memorization, she seeks to understand by always asking questions to me during class. She is also disciplined and organized managing her time effectively and balancing her academic duties with her other extracurricular tasks. Moreover, she possesses excellent leadership skills, evident in the classroom and her extracurricular activities. She always initiates tasks and has strong communication skills that enable her to lead her fellow students.

The applicant comes from financially challenged background. Despite these challenges, she remained consistent in her commitment in her education. Receiving this scholarship would significantly ease her financial burden, allowing her to fully focus in her studies. The applicant has all the qualities for your scholarship. I strongly recommend her for this scholarship.
