Ms. Lynniel has been my student since she was in Grade 11 and up until now she is in Grade 12 at Sitero Francisco Memorial National High School - Senior High School. During this time, I have had the opportunity to observe her academic progress and personal growth, as well as her participation in various school activities. She has consistently demonstrated a strong commitment to serving both the school and her community. At school, she has been actively involved in various student-led initiatives such as the Campus Integrity Crusaders (CIC) it is an organization whose purpose is to showcase integrity among the students of Sitero Francisco Memorial National High School and extracurricular activities. She often volunteers her time to assist in school events, mentoring younger students, especially her classmates, and contributing to the organization of academic programs. She is highly motivated, disciplined, and consistently displays a strong work ethic. She shows a genuine curiosity in learning, asks insightful questions, and demonstrates a keen ability to apply what she learns to real-world situations. Her academic performance reflects her dedication and passion for growth.
