Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Dear Committee Members,

I am pleased to recommend Isabella Marie F. Pelayo for the PCAFPD scholarship. As her former professor in Philippine Normal University, I had witnessed her leadership capabilities and good sense of responsibility as leader of the class.

Although I am not fully knowledgeable of the other extra-curricular activities of Ms. Pelayo, I am aware of her participation on various organizations in this University which proves her commitment to take an active role to promote advocacies she believes in and at the same time excel academically.

I am confident that she will be able to comply with all the requirements of the scholarship should she be accepted.
