Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Last year, she graduated as her batch's salutatorian. She does exceptionally well in extracurricular activities like journalism and club officer in addition to her academic pursuits. She led her group's study during my subjects and shown excellent leadership. She deserves her academic success because she is an exceptional student with a model attitude and manner. She is incredibly committed and passionate about her academics and interests. If I were to suggest one student for such a scholarship, she would always be at the top of my list. This woman deserves all the encouragement and financial assistance she will require.
