During this time, I have been continually impressed by his academic performance, dedication, and strong commitment to personal growth and community involvement.

Marvin Dacaldacal needs this scholarship since he is willingly to graduate his study or his course to be a teacher of Secondary major in Filipino. I believed about his ability that he will pursue it. I am confident that Marvin Dacaldacal will make the most of this scholarship opportunity, using it to further his academic and professional goals while continuing to contribute positively to the community. I strongly endorse his application for the PCAFPD scholarship and believe that he will be a worthy recipient.
