PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am delighted to recommend Mr. Alecsy Grana for your scholarship program. I have had the pleasure of knowing Alecsy since his first year of college when I taught art appreciation during the first semester of the 2022-2023 academic year. From the outset, Alecsy has demonstrated passion and perseverance, actively engaging in academic discussions and contributing thoughtful insights.

Alecsy's determination to his studies is reflected in his achievement of making the Dean's List in both semesters of his second year. He also actively participates in various competitions, including the Educator's Circle Quiz Bee, where he earned third place, as well as an essay writing contest. Currently, he serves as the third-year representative for The English Society, showcasing his leadership abilities.

In addition to his academic and extracurricular accomplishments, Alecsy displays a good character. He is adaptable and can collaborate well with others.

I firmly believe that your scholarship would greatly enhance Alecsy's educational journey. His drive and commitment will certainly enable him to make a significant impact as a recipient.
