Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am pleased to recommend Hannah Marie Q. Quibete for the PCAFPD on behalf of The Christian And Missionary Alliance Churches of the Philippines. As her spiritual leader, I have had the opportunity to witness Hannah's commitment to her faith, academic goals, and community involvement during the time I have known her. Hannah exemplifies compassion, integrity, and a strong sense of responsibility toward others—traits that I believe will benefit her in her pursuit of higher education.

Hannah has shown a remarkable dedication to her studies while actively participating in our community. She successfully balances challenging academics with significant engagement in community and faith-related activities, reflecting the values our faith promotes, such as kindness, perseverance, and leadership. I have observed her tirelessly volunteering in community initiatives and taking on leadership roles in a youth fellowship, where she has motivated others and made a positive impact on those around her.

Hannah's goals and potential align perfectly with the objectives of your scholarship program. She aims not only to achieve academic success but also to leverage her education to create a meaningful impact in the world. Her genuine desire to positively contribute to society and uplift others reflects the spirit of service that your scholarship seeks to endorse.

In conclusion, I am confident that Hannah will not only meet but surpass your expectations as a scholarship recipient. I wholeheartedly support her application and look forward to witnessing the positive influence she will certainly have in her future pursuits.
