Recommendation

I am writing on behalf of Keoffrey Patriarca regarding his application to be one of the aspiring Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development (PCAFPD) scholars. Keo and I have worked together many times in both campus journalism and youth volunteerism in our community, and I am one to witness how great and passionate he is about his crafts, even as a student.

It is a pleasure to work with him as he has this commending skill set that has led him to work effectively in different social activities. He always sticks to his core: to serve his community and not gain popularity or validation from people.

With these attributes that Keo possessed, he will be one of the deserving aspiring scholars to be granted this scholarship, as this also will mean a lot to him. And I know that more opportunities will await him in college.

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.
