Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am pleased to share my observations of Gerald C. Gagbo, a former student whose dedication and accomplishments in academics and leadership roles have been incredible. Gerald is committed to achieving his goals and consistently strives for excellence.

Throughout his time in school, Gerald demonstrated his leadership potential by serving as Secretary of the Supreme Secondary Learner Government (SSLG), which embodies being a leader and upholding consecutive terms as Class President and Secretary in their class. His involvement with the Red Cross Youth Council, where he managed the organization's social media account as their social media committee, reflects his ability to engage effectively with his peers through his community involvement with the platform he obtained. Moreover, as Treasurer of the REVIIISE Club—he focused on Reconstructing Experiments and Views in Inquiry, Investigation, Innovation, and Self-Exploration—he showcased his dedication to collaborative learning when he was elected by the adviser to be part of the club as an officer make his credibility impactful.

Gerald's contributions extend beyond academics; he has become a role model for his classmates and a source of inspiration within his community. His recent achievements at the District 1 Science Technology Fair Competition in Valenzuela, where he secured second place in the Robotics Intelligence Machine (RIM) category at both the District and Division levels, highlight his innovative thinking and resilience in the face of challenges.

Moreover, Gerald's involvement in campus journalism indicates his commitment to advocating for uplifting students and amplifying their voices. He is a representation and an example of empowering
