Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

As the secretary at Amadora Law Office, I am honored to recommend Ñary Ruslen Del P. Cabillon for scholarship consideration. Ms. Cabillon completed an immersion at Amadora Law Office, where she proved to be a hardworking, reliable, and conscientious individual, showing an exceptional commitment to her duties and a sincere dedication to personal and professional growth. Despite the administrative nature of her tasks—printing documents, transcribing information, and ensuring the workspace was organized and welcoming, she handled each responsibility with great care and thoroughness. She demonstrated a level of maturity and integrity, making a positive impact on the efficiency and organization of the office. It is rare to find a student with such a strong sense of responsibility and attention to detail, and I am confident that these qualities will greatly contribute to Ms. Cabillon's success as a scholarship recipient.

Ms. Cabillon's background is a testament to her resilience, determination, and dedication to academics. Coming from a humble upbringing, she have continually shown remarkable drive and a commitment to overcoming financial challenges to pursue a higher education. This scholarship would not only ease their financial burden but also allow her to focus fully on her studies and further develop the skills and qualities she have already displayed. I strongly believe that she has the potential to achieve great things and make meaningful contributions to their community and field. It is with complete confidence that I recommend Ms. Cabillon for this scholarship, and I am certain she will make the most of this opportunity with the same enthusiasm and determination she have shown in every role they undertake.
