Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

John Maximino S. Nebril is my former advisee in Leganes National High School. As a student he showed good manners and right conduct. He knew how to show respect not only to his teachers and classmates but also to other people he encountered inside the school campus. His good manner is truly commendable. He knew how to cooperate with others and was very willing to share his expertise as needed in their different subject areas. He was someone who could be able to help in the accomplishment of a certain task assigned to them. He also embodied trustworthiness, as he could be entrusted with the responsibilities delegated to him. He also gave importance to his studies. He diligently performed the tasks and submitted outputs required of him on their different subject areas. He was as well consistently present during school days and was only absent when he was not feeling well. As his former adviser, I witnessed his relentless effort to finish his senior high school education.

I, do hereby, recommend John Maximino S. Nebril, as someone who deserves to receive a scholarship or any help towards his studies. He, indeed, evidently showed dedication and persistent drive to pursue his college education.
