Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I have been awarded the pleasure of knowing Ms. Angielyn Mercado for 7 years now and as her sister in the community where she resides, she has always shown brilliance in and out of academics, continually and consistently up to this very moment. I have witnessed how she displays her confidence, knowledge and proactiveness to become successful in life. I was surprised on how she became the person she is now and has always impressed me with her keen wit.

I am very certain that she will progressively move forward with her studies, the same way that she has done so over the years despite the inner battles that she's facing every day. Angielyn is a dependable and outstanding student who continuously craves knowledge and finds learning exhilarating.

I believe if she receives aid in her education, she and her family will have fewer worries, which will help her focus more attention on her studies. I do not have any doubts that Angielyn will not succeed in her plans, she can do anything she puts her mind on and that's I can think of a more deserving candidate.
