Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am writing to recommend Ms. Aicelle C. Balaba as a candidate for the PCAFPD Scholarship. She is a member of my advising class, where she serves as the class secretary. As an officer, her leadership is felt by the entire class through her consistent commitment to her role. Her presence positively impacts the class, making her a role model dedicated to the welfare of those around her. She also demonstrates great attention to detail, as evidenced by her accurate reports on class attendance and the whereabouts of her classmates.

Ms. Balaba is one of my students in General Physics 1 this semester. She has shown eagerness and enthusiasm through her active participation in lectures and performance tasks. All of her outputs have exceeded my expectations, making her a student worthy of emulation. Due to her consistent effort to develop and improve her skills, she earned "with honors" status, achieving an average of over 90 last quarter. I believe she can maintain or even surpass her accomplishments from the previous term.

In the short time I have known her, I have built a strong bond with Ms. Balaba and her classmates, thanks to her positive disposition towards her studies and her approachable demeanor. I can always rely on her for school activities that require class participation. Along with the other officers, she has made significant contributions to the success of major performance tasks, such as the recently performed "Festival Street Dance." Overall, I believe that Ms. Balaba possesses all the qualities of a scholar. I am confident that whatever degree she pursues, she will persevere and graduate with Latin honors.
