Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am pleased to write this recommendation for Sofia Jill Santillan, whom I have had the privilege of knowing since childhood, witnessing her growth into an amazing individual she is today. Academically, Sofia has excelled at a distinguished institution, showing both responsibility and competence in her studies. While I am not the person to delve into her academic achievements, it is evident that she is committed to maintaining high standards and achieving excellence.

Beyond her academic pursuits, Sofia has been a dedicated altar server for many years. I had the honor to be her Sunday school teacher and previously held the position of Youth President in our church, a role she now embodies with grace and commitment. A fact, she is a pianist, and her musical abilities not only enhance our worship services but also create a welcoming and uplifting mood for everyone involved. Her gifts and talents truly enrich our community and represents her commitment to service.

I confidently believe in her potential, and her achievements are a testament of her hard work, resilience, and passion. I have no doubt that she will not only excel in her future endeavors but also inspire those around her. With her unique skills and positive mindset, she's poised to make a significant impact in everything she pursues. So, give her this chance as she can offer something impactful to the world. Her aspirations are driven by a humble purpose that aligns perfectly with the values of the scholarship. Supporting her journey means investing in a future filled with promise and integrity. I wholeheartedly support her journey and am excited to see all that she will accomplish.
