Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend Restie Q. Amorganda for PCAFPD Scholarship. As the Teacher In Charge at Mother Theresa Colegio de Milaor, Inc. I witness Restie's exceptional qualities that make her an ideal candidate.

Restie has been actively involved in different clubs and organization in our school, in fact she is Editor-in-Chief for our school publication, she cultivates leadership, mentorship and community engagement within the school. Beyond her contribution in publication, Restie is highly motivated and responsible students, with a GWA of 94- 95 grade she was academically awarded as a high honor student and consistently exceeding expectations in her academic pursuits.

Restie's dedication to learning and her ability to excel in challenging courses demonstrate her intellectual curiosity, a well-rounded individual with positive attitude, strong work-ethic as a head of the school publication and her commitment to excellence make her an ideal candidate for this scholarship.

I highly recommend Restie for this scholarship, she is deserving candidate who will undoubtedly make a positive impact in her chosen career in the future.
