

PCAFPD Scholarship Batch 2025
Peace Corps Foundation for the Philippine Development

Dear Members of the Scholarship Committee,

I am writing to recommend Allyson Joy L. Fuertes enthusiastically for the PCAFPD Scholarship Batch 2025. As a community service leader, I have witnessed her extraordinary leadership and heartfelt commitment to serving others, particularly through her impactful project, "Old but Gold," which she organized for the elementary students of Barangay Look 2nd.

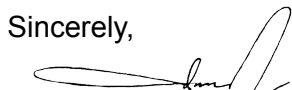

Allyson Joy L. Fuertes has consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership qualities, effectively guiding her peers and engaging the community meaningfully. Her ability to inspire and motivate those around her is truly remarkable. Despite facing numerous challenges throughout the project, she remained steadfast and unwavering, showing resilience that is rare in young leaders. Her passion for service is evident in her tireless efforts to create a positive learning environment for the children, ensuring they have access to valuable resources and experiences.

The "Old but Gold" project not only provided educational support but also instilled a sense of community and belonging among the students. Allyson's innovative approach and dedication to fostering inclusivity have made a lasting impact on both the children and the community at large.

I firmly believe that Allyson Joy L. Fuertes is deserving of this scholarship, as it will enable her to continue her journey of leadership and service. She embodies the qualities that this scholarship seeks to promote, and I am confident that she will make the most of this opportunity.

Thank you for considering this outstanding candidate. Please feel free to reach out to me if you require any further information.

Sincerely,

Virgilio Jumaquio Valenzuela
