Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To whom it may concern:

Greetings of peace!

I had the pleasure of having Ms. Alyzah E. Mamutuk as an intern at the Legal Services Office of the Provincial Government of Lanao del Sur. She was a freshman at the time but you could already see her fervent desire for knowledge – not only from the books, but from experience as well.

Ms. Mamutuk is an exceptional student and intern who is very eager to learn and complete her assigned tasks. She momentarily joined our team to learn from us, and I have observed her dedication to work. She has initiative and never backs down on a challenge. She efficiently manages her time to accomplish her work at the office without compromising her studies.

I am confident that she will continue to excel in her academic pursuits and make significant contributions to society. Her strong work ethic, intellectual curiosity, and commitment to public service make her an ideal candidate for the PCAFPD Scholarship.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at email address provided above if you require any further information.
