Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

As the Religious Leader of MCGI (Members Church of God International), I have had the pleasure of knowing Kent Justine Cabasisi, and I can say confidently that he is a community-oriented individual, hardworking and responsible one.

Kent Justine has consistently demonstrated dedication towards improvement of our local community. He does not excel only in his classes but also a caring and dependable person. He is also an active participant of community activities and outreach programs. He has shown his commitment to serving others. He is active and participative in community sports, clean-up drives, and assisting in community outreach programs.

It is evident that Kent Justine is committed to serving others, embodying the principles of kindness and humility. I am confident that his dedication to both academic excellence and community service makes him an ideal candidate for the PCAFPD scholarship.

I wholeheartedly endorse Kent Justin Cabasisi for PCAFP for this opportunity. I believe that with your support, he will continue to excel in his studies.

Ken Justine's dedication to both academic success and community service sets him apart as a deserving recipient of this scholarship.
