Recommendation

To whom it may concern.

I witnessed this student life Analyn B. Villaflores, her parents died at her Early age her struggle in life in so hard and despite of her struggles she continues to fight an able to reach her dream .During her school day on the sister of Mary school she is active when it comes to activity and she also become a top:9,6,4,3 to her classroom.and also she become a leader of her Campus like CATofficer,Helping sister,and majorette that has the big responsibilities in there school and a great help for the community.

This student Analyn B.Villaflores is a persistent person that really deserves to be accepted in your scholarship.I recommend her to be one of your scholars and it's a great help for this student to reach her goal and dream in life.
