Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Dear Scholarship Committee,

It is with great honor and enthusiasm that I recommend Jerrel Jon G Sorongon for your prestigious scholarship program. I have had the privilege of knowing Jerrel Jon G. Sorongon for over 10 years, as he has been a dedicated and active member of our church community since childhood. As his pastor, I have witnessed firsthand his personal growth, deep faith, and unwavering commitment to service within our congregation.

Jerrel was saved and baptized in our church, and he has remained a regular attendee, actively participating in a wide range of church activities. His involvement has not only been consistent but impactful. For several years, he has inspired younger members through his kindness, wisdom, and exemplary behavior. His natural leadership skills are evident in how he leads by example, motivating his peers and offering guidance to those seeking support in their spiritual and personal lives.

Jerrel is not only a leader but also a role model. His humility, integrity, and strong moral values reflect the best qualities of a dedicated Christian, and I am confident that these same attributes will make him a valuable addition to your scholarship program. He is a young man of exceptional character who is committed to using his talents and skills to serve others, and I believe that he will continue to do so in any academic and professional setting.

I wholeheartedly support Jerrel in his application for this scholarship, knowing that he will make the most of the opportunity to further his education and continue his journey of leadership and service. Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
