Recommendation

Almie Jane Gemina Benigay is a good kid who really cares about helping others. She's always willing to lend a hand and make a difference in our community.

I've seen her volunteer her time to teach younger kids how to read. She also helped out with feeding programs for people who need extra help, both at school and in our neighborhood. She even helps clean up our streets and plant trees to make our community a better place.

Almie comes from a family that doesn't have a lot of money, I know her family doesn't have much, her parents are farmers and they have a lot of kids. But Almie never let that get her down. She's always got a smile on her face and she's always willing to lend a hand. She's always willing to help out and she's a good example for other kids in our community. She even attends to Barangay meetings to listen and share her ideas about how to make things better for everyone.

Almie Jane Gemina Benigay is a young woman who embodies the values that the Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development scholarship represents. She is a leader, a volunteer, and a shining example of the power of hard work and determination. I wholeheartedly recommend her for this scholarship, knowing that she will continue to make a positive impact on our community and beyond.

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.
