Recommendation

I am Chelsy's adviser for nearly two school years, starting when they began their SHS academic journey until now that they are already graduating. The recommendations that I will be giving are mere observations of her growth throughout the past months.

Chelsy is an active student, a student leader, and a consistent part of the honor list. Active inside the classroom, creating a good rapport with her classmates and teachers. She is a student leader; she has the voice and the authority. Her voice is also her strength as she is a great public speaker, competing in different speaking contests and recently winning another medal. Her academic excellence is also stellar, reflecting months of dedication in her studies. These contributes a lot, school being a part of the community, tells that these talents and contributions are not solely for the class but also outside it. Chelsy is more than capable and always does a great job given the opportunity.
