Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am writing to strongly recommend Lovely Joy B. Bocala for the PCAFPD scholarship. I have known Lovely Joy as her CPAR instructor. While her academic achievements are impressive—she is an Honor awardee—her resilience in overcoming significant financial challenges is truly remarkable. Her family relies solely on her father's income as a laborer, further strained by her mother's recent cancer diagnosis and subsequent inability to work.

Despite these considerable hardships, Lovely Joy has maintained excellent academic standing. Her perseverance is evident in her consistent dedication to her studies, even while facing significant family responsibilities and financial pressures. This experience has not only strengthened her academic resolve but has also instilled in her a profound sense of empathy and determination.

Lovely Joy's commitment to pursuing Architecture demonstrates her unwavering dedication to her goals. This scholarship would be invaluable in alleviating the financial burden on her family, allowing her to focus on her studies and fully realize her potential as an architect. I highly recommend her for your consideration.
