Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Recommendation for Mariel G. Francisco

I am writing to wholeheartedly recommend Mariel G. Francisco for the scholarship offered by the Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development (PCAFPD). Mariel is a very hard-working individual who is in need of financial assistance to further her education. Her dedication to her studies and her community makes her an ideal candidate for this scholarship. Mariel has consistently demonstrated academic excellence throughout her educational journey. She is not only an academic achiever but also a curious learner who actively participates in class discussions and seeks out opportunities for personal and intellectual growth. In her eleventh grade, Mariel served as the vice president of our class, where she showcased her leadership skills and commitment to her peers. She was responsible for organizing various school activities, fostering a sense of community and collaboration among classmates. Her peers look up to her for guidance and support, and she has proven to be a trustworthy and dependable leader. Mariel's ability to listen to others and address their concerns has made her a beloved figure in our class. Additionally, Mariel's resilience in the face of challenges is commendable. She has overcome personal obstacles while maintaining her academic performance and commitment to her community. Supporting her education through this scholarship would be an investment in a future leader who will undoubtedly contribute to the betterment of society.
