Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Dear PCAFPD Scholarship Committee,

I am writing to enthusiastically recommend Ashley Cornelio for your esteemed Undergraduate Scholarship. As Ashley's English teacher and research advisor at Lubo National High School, I have had the distinct privilege of witnessing her exceptional academic abilities, strong leadership qualities, and unwavering commitment to community service and personal excellence. These qualities, combined with her demonstrated financial need and her remarkable resilience in overcoming financial challenges, make her an ideal candidate for your scholarship.

Ashley consistently demonstrates a strong academic drive and a genuine passion for learning. Her intellectual curiosity is evident in her consistently high academic performance and her proactive engagement in challenging coursework. This dedication extends beyond the classroom; she actively seeks opportunities to expand her knowledge and skills. It is important to note that despite occasional financial struggles, Ashley has maintained an exceptional academic record, demonstrating remarkable perseverance and determination.

Beyond academics, Ashley's leadership qualities are clearly evident in her various extracurricular activities and community involvement. She has served as the "Little Mayor" during Linggo ng Kabataan in the Municipality, Supreme Secondary Learner Government (SSLG) President in Lubo National High School, Municipal Federation SSLG, and as a Board Member in the Division Federation SSLG. These experiences have honed her organizational, communication, and interpersonal skills.

Ashley's financial circumstances present a significant barrier to her pursuing higher education, the PCAFPD scholarship would not only alleviate this burden but also enable her to fully focus on her studies and contribute her talents to society. Her ability to overcome financial hardship while maintaining such a high level of academic and extracurricular achievement is a testament to her character and determination.

I am confident that Ashley will thrive in a challenging academic environment and make significant contributions to her chosen field. Her academic excellence, leadership abilities, community involvement, demonstrated financial need, and remarkable resilience make her an exceptionally strong candidate for your scholarship. I highly recommend her without reservation.

Thank you for your time and consideration.
