Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Dear PCAFPD Team,

Warm Greetings! I highly recommend my former student, Ms. Jean Dereck C. Alcanzo, as a student deserving of your consideration for the scholarship fund. During her stay at STI College Marikina Inc. as a senior high school student, Jean has demonstrated leadership qualities befitting a student-leader. She coordinated and relayed school announcements and activities, such as school-wide events, seminars, and workshops, to her fellow Humanities and Social Sciences strand Grade 11 classmates in a timely manner during her stay at our campus. Moreover, she displayed discipline and authority as she called out the attention of her classmates, who tend to be unruly, during important meetings and discussions whether it was a club activity or homeroom activity. She also showed academic rigor, passion, and a keen mind by delivering quality outputs as when it comes to my Applied Social Sciences subject which I handled for a semester with her academic strand mates. Furthermore, she displayed exceptional communication skills and a respectful attitude when coordinating and negotiating with her teachers and organization members, which I consider as indispensable characteristics of a student-leader. Though her time with STI Marikina was short, she left a good impression with my co-faculty members and I as she was consistently part of the academic honor-roll list of her batch. Finally, please do consider her application for a scholarship as I believe that she will embody and uphold the values of your organization in the best way possible and I know and witness that she has worked hard to be where she is right now. Thanks, and best regards in advance!
