Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

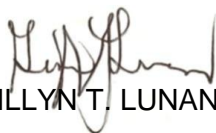

To the PCAFPD Scholarship Committee,

It is with great pride, honor and confidence that I recommend Elren P. Robles for the PCAFPD scholarship. Among all the students I have had, she stands out as the most deserving individual I know. Her intelligence, dedication, and unwavering commitment to excellence are truly exceptional.

Since preschool, Elren has consistently earned honors, a testament to her academic diligence and intellectual capability. Her perseverance in maintaining this level of excellence through to college is nothing short of inspiring. Despite facing financial challenges, she has never allowed these obstacles to hinder her pursuit of education and personal growth.

What sets her apart even further is her natural leadership. She leads not by authority, but by example motivating her classmates and schoolmates to strive for their best. Her influence has created a ripple effect of academic enthusiasm and integrity within our school community. Whether through organizing peer study groups, volunteering in community outreach, or simply offering a helping hand, she embodies the spirit of service and leadership that this scholarship seeks to support.

I wholeheartedly believe that Elren is not only a worthy candidate but also a future changemaker. Supporting her education is an investment in a brighter future for our community and beyond.
