Recommendation for Chrizalonia Mansinugdan

From: Hon. Larry Mansinugdan, Barangay Captain, Barangay Kinamaybay

Email: larrymansinugdan@gmail.com

I am pleased to recommend Chrizalonia Mansinugdan as an applicant for the PCAFPD scholarship program. As the Barangay Captain of Kinamaybay, I have had the opportunity to witness Chrizalonia's character, leadership, and dedication to our community over the years.

Chrizalonia is a young individual who has consistently shown a strong commitment to community service, despite the financial hardships his family faces. He has participated in various barangay-led activities such as clean-up drives, feeding programs for children, and educational outreach projects. On multiple occasions, he volunteered not just as a participant, but as someone who helps plan and mobilize other youth in our area.

What impresses me most about Chrizalonia is his humility and eagerness to help without expecting anything in return. Even during difficult times for his own family, he continued to show up and contribute—offering his time, energy, and ideas. His sense of leadership comes not from giving commands, but from setting an example through action.

In school, Chrizalonia is also known for his academic diligence. He manages to maintain good grades while staying active in school and community activities. His ability to balance both academics and community service at such a young age is a strong indication of his discipline, maturity, and sense of purpose.

I believe that Chrizalonia embodies the values that the PCAFPD scholarship stands for. He has the potential to become a leader who uplifts others, especially those in marginalized and rural communities like ours. Supporting his education is not just helping one student—it is an investment in a future advocate and servant-leader for the Philippines.

I strongly and wholeheartedly recommend Chrizalonia Mansinugdan for this scholarship.

Sincerely,

Hon. Larry Mansinugdan

Barangay Captain, Barangay Kinamaybay
