Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To Whom it May Concern,

I am honored to write this letter of recommendation for Addison Katrin L. Miraflor, who is applying for your esteemed scholarship program. As her former subject teacher and homeroom class adviser at Davao Chong Hua High School, I had the privilege of witnessing Addison's unwavering commitment to academic excellence and exemplary leadership.

Addison's consistently stands out among her peers, not only because of her academic achievements but also due to her natural ability to help, inspire and lead others. Even though Addison is not a classroom officer in our class since she is a Supreme Student Government secretary, she demonstrated remarkable organizational skills, a collaborative spirit, and a strong sense of responsibility especially in helping her teachers and classmate in a way she can. Her ability to rally fellow students, and initiate meaningful projects, maturity and leadership potential.

I firmly believe that Addison's possesses the qualities your scholarship program seeks to support and cultivate. She is a driven, responsible, and inspiring individual who will undoubtedly use this opportunity to further grow as a student leader and contribute positively to any academic institution or community she becomes a part of.

It is without reservation that I recommend Addison Katrin L. Miraflor for your scholarship. Should you require any additional information, please feel free to contact me at my email address I have provided.

Thank you for considering this application.
