Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It's an honor for me to recommend WL Margareth B. Angeles, someone I've seen grow into a true leader with both heart and purpose. Margareth isn't just part of the Supreme Student Government, she leads it with sincerity and strength as our Prime Minister. Her leadership comes naturally, not because she seeks attention, but because she genuinely cares. That role didn't just sharpen her skills, it shaped her character. She leads with kindness, listens with empathy, and stands firm in her values.

What amazes me most is how she balances everything. Despite her leadership duties, she's never lost sight of her studies. She's the kind of student who makes time—not excuses. Whether it's organizing school events or studying late into the night, Margareth gives her all. And I've witnessed her do this again and again. I truly believe she will continue to lead, inspire, and excel in any path she chooses.
