Recommendation

Being their teacher in English 10 last 2021-2022, I can say that the applicant was one of the best students that I've had in their batch. She was also under my advisory when she was in Grade 10. She excelled in my subject and was one of the few who was consistently awarded with high honors every quarter. In addition, she was eloquent and knew how to deal with the tasks given to her. Alexis always gave her best in accomplishing the outputs asked and performed beyond what was expected of her. She was also a good speaker and knew how to properly communicate her thoughts and ideas. I strongly believe that she will be one of the best students you'll have if she is given a chance.

Alexis is not just an intelligent student, but also a responsible leader. She was elected several times as classroom officer. She also became a director of the play that her section presented in one of their subjects in Grade 11 and is currently directing a new one this school year. Moreover, she also participates actively in programs like dental missions, feeding programs, gift giving projects, clean up drive, spouse night meetings, and district conferences.

Moreover, Alexis was able to hold many positions, roles, and continues to showcase her knowledge, creativity, skills, and talents through the accomplishments she has as a student. She also consistently involves herself in different community projects and programs. Having mentioned these, I hope that you can consider her as one of your organization's scholars.
